

If you wish, assign weight to each criterion. Determine what other criteria, if any, you want to use to assess students' presentations.

PURPOSE

Does the presentation address why the challenges faced by the people in the story and how they overcame them is inspirational?

CREATIVITY

Does the presentation reflect a novel approach to the issue?

APPLICABILITY

Does the presentation address how the issues faced by the people in the story apply to others concerned about cancer and health care?

MECHANICS

Is the presentation coherent and engaging?

REALITY

Does the presentation reflect what people actually say and do?

THOUGHTFULNESS

Does the presentation offer reasonable explanations and background information?

EXTRA

Does everyone in the group participate? Does the presentation reflect effort?
