

Overview

Public Review of IRS Form 990

The LIVESTRONG Foundation recently filed its annual tax return, Form 990, with the Internal Revenue Service. This annual filing not only fulfills an important compliance obligation, it also provides an opportunity to share information with our constituents and supporters. We take both objectives seriously. We believe a public charity has a responsibility to conduct its business in an open and fully transparent manner. Therefore, we readily share our tax filings with the public and our supporters.

Fulfill an Important Compliance Obligation

The form is required as an annual informational return by the IRS. It is extensive and requires financial as well as operational and governance information to be submitted in standardized formula and format, which allows for a level evaluation of an organization's programs and accomplishments.

With millions of non-profit organizations and public charities around the country, it is important to have a process to routinely and systematically review information about the activities of tax-exempt organizations. This annual filing helps both oversight agencies and the general public evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of operations and ensure they stay true to their charitable purpose. The vast majority of compliance related disclosures can be found on pages 3-6 of the tax return.

Provide Fully Transparent Information about the Foundation's Activities

Another valuable benefit is the opportunity to share information with the general public and the Foundation's stakeholders and to provide some comparative metrics for performance. While the form is not adequate as a single tool to evaluate total mission impact, it is still an important source of quantitative information for donors, clients, volunteers, fundraisers and the general public. Certain indicators derived from the form can be misleading when not considered in concert with other factors not represented on the form.

The full tax return for 2018 is attached, but due to its lengthy and comprehensive nature, we would like to highlight a few key items:

- As reflected on page 1, the Foundation generated $2.4 million in contributions and grant revenues, which does not include in-kind service revenues of $1.2 million. The Foundation's investment and endowment portfolios recognized a loss of $3.8 million, while other revenues, generated $280,000 in revenue. The Foundation also generated $600,000 from special events conducted around the country.

- The Foundation spent over 81% of its $10.4 million in expenses on mission and programs for the cancer community. The remainder was spent on development efforts and operational infrastructure. Additional detail (by expenditure type) can be found on page 10. The major accomplishments include:

Serving Individuals: In 2018, the Foundation served 276,000 clients (cancer survivors or their loved ones and caregivers) through phone navigation services by providing counsel and support in understanding treatment options, managing insurance and medical expenses, fertility preservation, clinical trial matching and access to emotional support services. Through these services, Livestrong helped its clients save nearly $9.2 million in healthcare related costs.

Building Engaged Communities: In 2018, our community programs included:

- Livestrong at the YMCA, a free 12 week comprehensive physical activity and wellness program offered in over 700 YMCA branches in 42 states across the U.S., serving more than 66,000 individuals;
- Livestrong at School, a free downloadable program for school professionals for grades K-12 to educate students about the effects of cancer in their community. This program has been used by more than 128,000 teachers and has reached more than 3.8 million students; and the
- Livestrong Leader Program, a volunteer program with over 90 advocates nationally and globally focused on raising awareness, advocacy and fundraising.

Leading Systems Change: Since one of the most frequently-reported challenges faced by cancer patients and survivors is being overwhelmed by the very complicated and confusing cancer and healthcare system, we advocate for patient-centered care through research, advocacy and policy change. These efforts include funding for the establishment of the Livestrong Cancer Institutes at UT's Dell Medical School, an enterprise that puts patients at the center of radically changing, revolutionizing, and reinventing the delivery of cancer care.

- Non-Program Expenses: Non program expenses include essential costs such as facility maintenance, governance, legal counsel, technology, and administrative functions. These investments are critical to providing continued funding for our mission, ensuring compliance with all laws and regulations, providing excellent governance and investing in continued operational efficiencies and best practices. It is always the Foundation's goal to keep non-program expenses sensibly low in order to funnel the most dollars to programs. In 2018, Livestrong was able to reduce fundraising and management expenses by $644,000 (25%), to represent just 19% of the total budget.
- The Foundation had 36 employees and 400 volunteers as shown on page 1.
- Detail about the governing board and policies can be found on page 6.

- Select information about our board members, officers, employees, and contractors can be found on pages 7 and 8.
- Details about our net asset position can be found on page 11. The Foundation has total net assets of $48.8 million, with $36.5 million in cash and investment accounts.
- Supporting schedules of note include:
  - Schedules A and B provide certain detail about total public support and contributions
  - Schedule C gives insight into our government relations work
  - Schedule D has additional information about endowment fund balances totaling $37 million and property and equipment (which has a cost basis of $8.7 million).
  - Schedule G shows details regarding our fundraising activities
  - Schedule I includes a list of all grant recipients and their total awards
  - Schedule J details compensation information for officers and key employees.
  - Schedule O provides space to include supplemental information when space was not adequate elsewhere on the form.

We are happy to share LIVESTRONG's information with you and hope you will let us know if you have any questions.
